PEOPLE PRESENCE PURPOSE POWER

2018

...we prayerfully value all generations

Sunday, June 24 – Thursday, June 28, 2018

SC Conference Bishop
Greg Amos

It's that exciting time again for the South Carolina Conference of the IPHC family to gather. We are expecting an incredible week for Camp Meeting 2018! As you can see we have powerfully gifted and anointed speakers. Our IPHC emphasis for 2018 is our core value declaring, "We prayerfully value all generations".

Rev. Beth Stephens Johnson will be ministering Sunday through Wednesday nights and Dr. Terry Tramel will be our morning speaker Monday through Thursday. Thursday night we will host Hope Train for the Turbeville Children's Home. Please make plans now to attend as many services as possible. Come expecting God's "undeniable power" during our time together. Join me in prayer for the Holy Spirit to do whatever He desires to do. See you here!

Blessings!

Greg

Bishop Greg and Tamara Amos

Sunday-Wednesday Evening Guest Speaker
Rev. Beth Stephens Johnson

Beth was born and raised with roots running deep in Pentecost. Both grandfathers and one grandmother preached the gospel, blazing the trail for their families. Beth accepted the call to preach at the age of 20 and within weeks, preached her first sermon. She has now shared the gospel for over 25 years all over the United States and abroad. Beth has always strived to follow and accept the Lord's direction in her life, so she was delighted that He put a very special man in her life. On June 29, 2013, she became the wife of Curt Johnson. They are very excited about the plans God has for them as they work together in His Kingdom! Since the beginning of their marriage and their work together for God, God has been stirring their hearts to simply preach the Gospel and pray for healing for the sick. Whenever He sent His disciples out, "He sent them to preach the Kingdom of God, and to heal the sick" Luke 9:1. Already, signs and wonders are confirming the Word of the Lord! As she and Curt go forward, there is great anticipation and expectation for what God is going to do in this new season!

Morning Sessions
Dr. Terry Tramel

Dr. Terry Tramel is an ordained minister in the International Pentecostal Holiness Church. He is in his 41st year of ministry. He has spoken extensively in local church revivals, Bible Conferences, and camp meetings across America and in several other nations. He served for 15 years as professor of Bible and Theology at Southwestern Christian University in Bethany, Oklahoma. At the beginning of 2017 assumed the role as the Director of Global Outreach and Leadership Development for the World Missions Ministries of the International Pentecostal Holiness Church.

He holds a B.S. degree in Pastoral Ministry from Mid America Christian University in Oklahoma City, a M.A. degree in Theology from Southern Nazarene University in Bethany, Oklahoma, and a D.Min. degree in Pentecostal Leadership from the Assemblies of God Theological Seminary in Springfield, Missouri. He is the author of "The Beauty of the Balance: Toward an Evangelical-Pentecostal Theology."

Dr. Tramel and his wife, Rebecca, live in Norman, Oklahoma. They have two adult children, a daughter, Tara (Light), and a son, Clayton.

Sunday Evening Youth Speaker
Josh Lafferty

Josh Lafferty has been involved in ministry from a young age. Along with working in public education, he has spent the last eight years traveling and speaking throughout the United States. His desire is to see the Church awakened from apathy and complacency and to see believers function in alignment with the New Testament model. Josh currently serves on staff at Bethany Church in Mississippi. He is also a member of the Student Ministries Advisory Team for the IPHC.
