BREAK-OUT SPEAKERS

PASTOR JAY TEAL

Pastor Jay Teal is a devoted pastor at Compassion Church in Florence, SC. With a heart filled with empathy and a spirit driven by compassion, he is dedicated to pointing people to Jesus. His educational foundation was established at Emmanuel University in Franklin Springs, GA, where he cultivated the knowledge and wisdom that forms the backbone of HIS ministry. Central to my world is my role as a husband to the incredible Jessica, whose support and love are the cornerstones of my personal and professional endeavors. He is also a loving father to 3 wonderful children.

PASTOR JASON COOK

Pastor Jason Cook is an ordained minister with the IPHC. He Pastors the Refuge Church, a 5 campus Church based out of Conway, SC. He is married to Chloe, and has one daughter, Alice. Pastor Jason believes the body of Christ's best days are still to come.

REV. T.C. HOLMES

In the fall of 2002, Bishop TC Holmes began working diligently towards developing a ministry that emulates the "Kingdom Mandate" Reaching out beyond race, color, or creed, social status, ethnicity or cultural boundaries, Kingdom Purpose Evangelism exists to improve the overall quality of life for anyone who struggles to recognize their true value in the earth. This ministry is determined to help people discover both their Kingdom Purpose and the "Gift of God" housed within them. Its message is one of encouragement and empowerment to those struggling due to past failures and weaknesses that have become bitter roots and strongholds in their lives. He is passionately driven to help these individuals overcome their struggles by leading them into a discovery of their true identity.
