IPHC womens DISCIPLESHIP MINISTRIES

Dear WM Directors of the SC IPHC Conference,

What a privilege that we all get to share in serving the ladies of our conference!

ABIDE IN WORSHIP is our theme for 2024. John 4:23 (NIV) states, "Yet a time is coming and has now come when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and in truth, for they are the kind of worshipers the Father seeks." Our prayer for each of us is to be the kind of worshiper that the Father seeks. May He find us faithful in our worship, while supporting our ladies as we learn to Abide and develop a more intimate relationship with our Lord and Savior.*

Thank you so much for your willingness to serve and support SCWMs. Great things He has in store for those who Abide in Worship! He is worthy of all of our praise.

Serving in love,

Lynn, Glenda, Marilyn, Karen, Heather, and Lynn Smith

STRUCTURE FOR MINISTRY

IPHC Women's Ministries functions at three levels: general, conference, and local. This section contains suggested organizational structures at all three levels of ministry.

The General Level - The General Women's Ministries Board/Council helps set the ministry's vision and mission. This Board provides resources and opportunities to help conference and local church Women's Ministries leaders inspire, equip, and support the women they serve.

The General Director of Women's Ministries will be recommended by the Executive Director of Discipleship Ministries and approved by the Discipleship Ministries Council.

The Women's Ministries Director will appoint the General Women's Ministries Board in consultation with the Executive Director of Discipleship Ministries and approved by the Discipleship Ministries Council. Any woman who is a member of the IPHC may serve on the General Women's Ministries Board. She should be a follower of Christ, a faithful member of her local church, and have the heart to serve women. General Board members will be appointed for a four-year term during the General Convention year.

The General Women's Ministries Board Members will each be assigned one of the following profiles:

- Resourcing/Discipleship
- Inspiration and Story-telling
- Girls' Ministries Collaborator
- International Liaison
- Special Projects

For the General Level, it is recommended that:

- The board includes multigenerational representation.
- The board consists of ethnic, international, and multi-cultural representation
- The IPHC demography be considered for board representation

In the event the Director's position becomes vacant, the Executive Director of the Discipleship Ministries, in consultation with the General Women's Ministries Board, will recommend a director to the Discipleship Ministries Council for approval. Suppose other vacancies occur on the General Women's Ministries

Board during the quadrennium. In that case, the General Women's Ministries Director, in consultation with the Executive Director of Discipleship Ministries, will make an appointment to complete the term.

Although Girls' Ministries functions under the supervision of Kids' Ministries, Women's Ministries maintains a cooperative relationship with Girls' Ministries. Healthy handoff of girls from Girls' Ministries to Women's Ministries is essential in the collaborative relationship.

The Conference Level

The ideas expressed here are a suggested but flexible structure for ministry to women.

Through prayer and consultation with the conference leadership, the conference-level Women's Ministries Board/Council may adjust this structure to best fit their ministry context.

The Conference Discipleship Ministries Director appoints the Conference Women's Ministries Director (or Conference Superintendent if there is no DM Director). This appointment may be made in consultation with a nominating committee if desired. This appointment should be made and re-evaluated in conjunction with the conference quadrennial business session every four years.

The Conference Women's Ministries Board will be appointed by the Conference Director of Women's Ministries in Consultation with her conference leader. She may use a nominating process/committee if desired. Conference Women's Ministries Board members can be selected from among women who are active and supportive of ministry to women in their local church.

It is strongly recommended that Conference Women's Ministries Board includes: multigenerational representation (preferably at least three decades) and ethnic/international/cultural representation. It is suggested that the Conference Board Members adopt position profiles similar to the General Level Board Member profiles.

The primary function of the Conference Women's Ministries team is to provide intentional support and encouragement to local directors; this includes providing innovative ideas, practical training, helpful resources, and growth opportunities. You should host a yearly event for local church leaders that is fun, inspiring, encouraging, and full of strategy for ministry. The conference Women's Ministries team should equip every local church director with the tools and support needed to succeed as a leader and fulfill the vision and mission of Women's Ministries. Additionally, the Conference Women's Ministries team cooperates with the General Women's Ministries Board to execute the vision and mission for the women of the IPHC.

The Local Level

Local Church Women's Ministries Leaders are the heroes! You are the reason we do what we do. The impact made on women in the local church is the focus of our entire ministry. Our chief aim is for women to be disciplined so they can then disciple- which happens in the local church.

The pastor of a church should appoint the Local Church Women's Ministries Leader. This leader should be an active and supportive member of her local church who desires to serve women.

In consultation with her pastor, the local church Women's Ministries leader may appoint a team to help lead the ministry to women in her church. These team members should be active and supportive members of the local church and have the heart to serve women.

The local pastor should determine a set time period for the local Women's Ministries leader to serve and evaluate whether the leader will continue to serve at the end of the specified period. The same should be considered for the local church's Women's Ministries leadership team.

All IPHC Women's Ministries leaders (general, conference, and local level) will:

- Be active and supportive members of the IPHC and involved in ministry to women
- Plan and promote ministry to women in full support of Women's Ministries vision, mission, and strategic goals
- Strive to attend all meetings and events promoted by Women's Ministries
- Commit to being knowledgeable of the information in this Leader's Guide and participate in ongoing training provided by Women's Ministries
- Function well as a team by respecting and honoring the gifts of others and being faithful to the ministry profile assigned
- Implement and promote resources and opportunities provided by Women's Ministries
- Promote Vision Partnership
- Support Special Projects
- Commit to mentoring/training other leaders

This organizational structure for Women's Ministries exists to help guide your ministry development. Work with your pastor or conference leader to devise a plan/structure that works best for your ministry context. Feel free to contact the Women's Ministries Director at women@iphc.org with questions or if you need advice.

Christmas 4 Missionaries, formerly known as Agnes Robinson Missions Offering, is an annual opportunity for people around the IPHC to help provide a monetary Christmas bonus for our full-time and retired missionaries.

Payments are made to the missionaries in late November, but funds are received year around. This offering tells a story that is still being written. It is the story of dollars given by IPHC women around the United States, dollars that spread heart-felt smiles, holiday meals, needed medicine, precious memories, and more in their wake. These dollars tell a story of care to countless missionary children. But they tell other stories as well. Russell Board, Director of Missions for Asia/Pacific, was able to overcome tight finances caused by the falling value of the dollar in Japan and bring increased Christmas cheer to his family. Gifts were purchased, meals were shared, children came home, equipment was repaired, emergencies were covered... the list goes on and on. Be a part of the story through your gift. You make the difference in the life of a missionary!

Blanche L. King Scholarship Fund For Missionaries' Children

The Blanche L. King Scholarship program is funded by Women's Ministries of the International Pentecostal Holiness Church to assist children of IPHC Missionaries in furthering their education at one of the denominational colleges.

The scholarship is named in honor of the third General Woman's Auxiliary (now Women's Ministries) President and the wife of Bishop J.H. King. Mrs. King had the distinction of being the first teacher hired for Franklin Springs Institute (now Emmanuel University) in 1919, and gave the baccalaureate address for the 50th anniversary of the college in 1969. She had a deep love for the education of children of missionaries.

Our missionaries give their lives on foreign fields, as do their children, to carry the Gospel as the Great Commission commands us all to do. The Women of the IPHC would like to give you the opportunity to assist children of missionaries with annual offerings received on or near Mrs. King's birthday which is July 4th.
